DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

- 1. The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on 11/03/03 was timely filed. The submission is in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97. Accordingly, the information disclosure statement is being considered by the examiner.
- 2. The listing of references in the specification is not a proper information disclosure statement. 37 CFR 1.98(b) requires a list of all patents, publications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office, and MPEP § 609 A(1) states, "the list may not be incorporated into the specification but must be submitted in a separate paper." Therefore, unless the references have been cited by the examiner on form PTO-892, they have not been considered.

Specification

- 3. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.
- 4. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it fails to be in narrative form. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).
- 5. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

Application/Control Number: 09/882,282

Art Unit: 2177

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.
- 7. Claims 1-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hancock et al. (Hancock), PGPB no. 2003/0009361.

As to claim 1, Hancock teaches a method for interfacing between a supplier/seller and a customer/buyer to manage the transfer of products between the two parties (page 1, par. 003 et seq.) In particular, Hancock teaches a central database (172, 308) that provides disparate buyer information on a seller network (page 4, par. 0048 et seq.) Hancock further teaches a buyer access level function on the seller network, wherein the seller can provide the buyer with access to a set of buyer data as well as a set of buyer functions that enable buyer to structure the buyer data (page 4, par. 0050; page 9, par. 0127; page 10, par. 0163 et seq.) Hancock also teaches a gatekeeper level function that allows the provision of a gatekeeper buyer contact point on a buyer network with the set of buyer data from the database and the set of buyer functions (page 9, par. 0126 et seq.) Additionally, Hancock teaches a buyer subordinate level for user function that allows the provision of a buyer subordinate level contact point that provides a buyer subordinate level user with access to selected buyer data and functions (page 9, par. 0127 et seq.)

As to claim 2, Hancock teaches a plurality of buyers having disparate data (fig. 1, items 160, 164 et seq.)

As to claims 3-4, Hancock teaches predetermined seller data and buyer specific data stored in the database (page 4, par. 56 et seq.)

As to claims 5-6, Hancock teaches the selection of an event to be defined; the selection of buyer data for defining event (page 7, par. 0093-0095); formatting of selected buyer data in a presentable report and presentation of report to buyer (page 7, par. 0096 et seq.)

As to claim 7, Hancock teaches that generated reports include buyer functions and relationship generable functionalities (page 7, par. 096-97 et seq.)
